

Learn from the world's leading platform for sustainable finance

At the LGX Academy, we've been providing unparalleled sustainable finance training to participants from all over the world since 2020 - built around our expertise as the world's leading platform for sustainable finance that has helped to raise more than EUR 1 trillion for sustainable development across the globe. Endorsed and trusted by industry experts and professionals looking to contribute towards a more low-carbon and inclusive economy, we offer a comprehensive curriculum designed to deepen your understanding of the sustainable finance market.

Goes beyond theory with practical case-studies

Our commitment to excellence extends beyond theory. With a focus on practical learning, our courses integrate case studies and real-life examples of sustainable debt issuance. By immersing yourself in hands-on experiences, you'll gain invaluable insights that translate directly into actionable knowledge.

Stay ahead on market trends and innovations

Stay on top of hot topics, trends, and developments with our regularly updated course topics and material. Tailor-made courses are also available, which you can carefully craft together with our in-house experts to meet your specific needs for a personalised learning journey.

Join us at LGX Academy and start your sustainable finance journey today!

Learn from our In-House Experts

Experience expert-led education at LGX Academy, where our in-house LGX team offer deep expertise in sustainable finance. Our courses are tailored to specific needs and regularly updated to cover market trends and emerging topics, ensuring continuous professional growth.
